

ISOLATED N. M. TOWNS ASK AID

Albuquerque, N. M., May 21.—Isolated towns on the Santa Fe railroad between Laramie and Eagle are asking for food and supplies today as the flood conditions show no signs of improving. The Santa Fe railway is unable to run to have a motor truck fleet at Laramie where supplies may be dispatched to Socorro, Moriarty, San Marcel and several other small towns. San Antonio, south of Socorro, was today reported completely submerged. Santa Fe officials would venture no opinion today as to when the line could be reopened as the Santa Grande has receded only slightly.

RAILROADS WILL REVISE RATES ON COAL AND COKE

W. C. Barnes, freight traffic manager for the El Paso and Southwestern system, left Sunday morning for Denver to attend a meeting of New Mexico and Colorado lines relative to a revision of coal and coke rates for the entire territory. It is the immediate object of this meeting to consolidate the traffic rate publications of the various lines into one statement, instead of having a pamphlet for the rates of each road.

TO SUPERINTEND OPENING OF Y. W. LODGING HOUSE

Miss Edna Y. W. will go to Cloudcroft Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. C. T. Hays, matron of the Y. W. C. A. lodging house, to superintend the construction of a dining room addition to the summer cottage and the opening of the house, preparatory to the first party to be held there next week.

On Saturday a group of about 20 high school members of the El Paso Square club, will go to Cloudcroft, accompanied by Miss Edna Hays and Mrs. Y. W. C. A. for a conference of 10 days.

The cottage for the rest of the summer will be given over to business girls of El Paso, with members and non-members of the association. The vacation periods are two weeks in length.

MANY BOYS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF FREE SWIMMING LESSONS

The Y. M. C. A. was thronged Monday morning with small boys of various ages applying for entrance to the free swimming instruction class, the first being held each day of this week for the boys of El Paso. A half hour's instruction in "dry land" is given and then a half hour's instruction in the pool. Two boys in a squad are taught at a time. Boys between the ages of 10 and 15 are eligible. About 140 boys were instructed during the week's free instruction last year, three-fourths of whom learned how to swim. Merit badges were awarded those learning the art in the given time, as well as to those who had learned.

Europe Sees Hope Of Restoration In Proposal To Pay War Debt To U. S. With Indemnity Bonds Of Germany

NEW YORK, May 21.—Reading the cable dispatches from Berlin, it becomes manifest that the British and French conferees are engaged in sending another flock of trial balloons to the German government, offering the peace conference at Paris. Always the actual situation remains the same, the whole purpose of the European nations, on the financial side of the peace settlement is to find some way of bringing the credit and the capital of the United States into the operation of restoring conditions. So far there have been two well defined proposals for the financial adjustments. The better known suggestion, so far as the United States is concerned, is that advocated by Keynes and the so-called "Liberals" of Great Britain who proposed that the United States should cancel the debt owed by the nations with which it was associated in the war with Germany.

Every possible condition would be met if the United States would make the debt, according to the Keynes proposal.

This sacrifice was to be the renunciation of $10,000,000,000 borrowed from the United States by Germany, France, Italy, Belgium and the smaller nations which fought Germany. The United States would then be the only creditor of Germany. The German indemnity would be paid to the United States. When the whole transaction was completed Britain would come out even, France would gain upwards of $4,000,000,000 and Italy almost as much. Belgium and the smaller states the balance up to the $10,000,000,000.

Part of the cost of the war, the principal creditor of Germany, could then consent to the reduction of the German indemnity to a figure which would be within the capacity of Germany to pay, something like $10,000,000,000, in Keynes's computation.

The British "Liberals" proposed to shift from Germany to America a considerable part of the burden of the war. If America consented then the necessity to watch Germany, to enforce the treaty terms, would be greatly lessened. The whole problem of European peace would be simplified.
